TONIGHT'S GAME

SETTING THE SCENE

The Bengals return to Paycor Stadium for a Thursday Night Football showdown against the division-rival Pittsburgh Steelers. Cincinnati enters the matchup at 2-4 and looks to snap a four-game skid after a 27-18 loss in Green Bay. The Bengals battled back from a 14-point deficit to pull within six late, but the Packers sealed the game with a field goal in the final minutes. Veteran QB Joe Flacco, acquired in a Oct. 7 trade with Cleveland, made his first start just five days later and impressed with 219 yards and two touchdowns in his Bengals debut. Head coach Zac Taylor praised Flacco's poise and command given the short preparation window, saying his quick grasp of the offense brings confidence heading into Thursday night.

Cincinnati will look to build on a stronger second half in Green Bay, where the offense found rhythm behind a 17-play scoring drive and the defense limited damage in the red zone. The short week sets up a pivotal AFC North test, with Pittsburgh riding a three-game win streak and holding first place at 4-1. A win would pull the Bengals closer in the standings and provide a needed boost before the season's midpoint. Taylor emphasized the opportunity ahead, calling the primetime home matchup "a fair playing field" and a chance to respond against the division leader.

Thursday also marks the return of the fan-favorite "White Bengal" look, as Cincinnati takes the field in all white uniforms paired with the alternate white helmet. The Bengals are 4-1 in the combination since its 2022 debut and will look to keep that success rolling under the lights at Paycor Stadium.

THE SERIES: VS STEELERS

The Steelers lead 71-40 overall, including 2-0 in postseason. The two postseason games both were Steelers wins in Wild Card round contests at Paycor Stadium (formerly named Paul Brown Stadium), after the 2005 and '15 seasons.

The Bengals have played more games against the Steelers (111) than any other foe. Cleveland is second in that category at 104, and Tennessee (formerly Houston Oilers) is third at 80.

ZAC TAYLOR

HEAD COACH - 7TH SEASON

Zac Taylor became the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019, and enters his seventh season in 2025. He owns a 46-52-1 regular-season record and a 5-2 postseason mark. Under his leadership, the Bengals have posted four straight winning seasons and built one of the NFL's top offenses.

In 2024, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 finish, ending the year with five consecutive wins. The Bengals led the NFL in passing yards per game and ranked top 10 in scoring and total offense.

Joe Burrow set franchise records in completions, yards and touchdowns, earning Pro Bowl and Comeback Player of the Year honors. Ja'Marr Chase won the rare receiving "Triple Crown," while Chase Brown broke out as a versatile threat.

Despite injuries in 2023, Taylor guided the Bengals to another 9-8 season. A midseason surge with a healthy Burrow showed promise. When Burrow went down with injury, Taylor helped backup Jake Browning step in and finish 4-3. Browning ranked second leaguewide in passing yards and completion percentage during that stretch.

Chase notched his first 100-catch season, while Joe Mixon surpassed 1,200 scrimmage yards for the third year in a row.

In 2022, Taylor led the Bengals to an AFC North title and a second straight AFC Championship Game. After a 4-4 start, they won eight straight to close the regular season and picked up playoff wins over Baltimore and Buffalo. Taylor became one of just 13 coaches to win five of his first six playoff games.

The 2021 season was a turning point, as Taylor guided the Bengals to their first division title in six years and a Super Bowl appearance. Burrow was named Comeback Player of the Year, and Chase earned Offensive Rookie of the Year after a record-setting debut.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow to the pros amid COVID-19 challenges. Burrow set rookie passing records before a knee injury ended his season, and Taylor's revamped defense quietly improved in several key areas.

Taylor's debut season in 2019 showed second-half growth on both sides of the ball, setting the tone for the team's future rise.

Before joining Cincinnati, Taylor coached QBs with the L.A. Rams, helping them reach Super Bowl LIII. His resume includes stops at UC, Miami (NFL) and Texas A&M. As a player, he was a record-setting QB at Nebraska and was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. He and his wife Sarah have four children.

DEUCE BAUER

DEUCE BAUER

Heartsaver Hero Award Recipient

HONORED FOR:

Heroic act of saving his father's life with Hands-Only CPR

ABOUT:

In 2024, while waiting for his wife to finish the Heart Mini 15K, Deuce Bauer's father, Rich, suddenly went into cardiac arrest. Without hesitation, Deuce rushed to his side and began performing Hands-Only CPR, continuing until the race medical team arrived with an automated external defibrillator (AED). His quick action helped save his father's life. After several weeks of recovery and heart surgery, Rich made a full recovery and returned home. Inspired by his father's survival, Deuce ran his first 5K at the Heart Mini the following year, with Rich proudly cheering him on. Tonight, the American Heart Association honors Deuce with the Heartsaver Hero Award, recognizing his courage and life-saving actions.

MORE THAN A STADIUM

CINCINNATI IS OUR HOME

Paycor Stadium isn't just a place to watch football, it's the heart of Cincinnati. Since opening as Paul Brown Stadium in 2000, it has been a gathering place for unforgettable moments. Today, with thoughtful renovations underway, the stadium continues to provide an electrifying gameday experience for fans and players alike.

The Bengals drive over $1 billion in annual economic impact to the region. Through training camps, charity initiatives and unforgettable gameday experiences, the stadium remains a cornerstone of Cincinnati's downtown life.

“We love this city, and we love our fans. We are committed to investing in our team, our stadium and our community.”

CAROLINE & ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

“The new lease keeps Paycor Stadium on par with other communities around the country and maintains an excellent venue. Paycor Stadium will remain a focal point for Cincinnati’s riverfront. Importantly, this solidifies the future of the Bengals in Cincinnati, our beloved home, for many years to come,” Katie Blackburn said.

Paycor Stadium is more than a building, it’s where history is made, fans unite and the future of Bengals football comes alive. With top-tier renovations, a downtown location and generations of loyal fans, the stadium stands as a symbol of pride, community and Who Dey spirit for years to come.

“We want to compete at the highest level in the NFL here in Cincinnati. It was important to have an agreement that works for us, works for our fans and works for the community.”

GAMEDAY TRADITIONS

RULER OF THE JUNGLE & ROCK N RULE

On Bengals gameday, two unforgettable moments light up Paycor Stadium. Just before kickoff, the Ruler of the Jungle takes the spotlight on the Ruler Stage. A Bengals legend, celebrity or hometown hero leads the entire stadium in a thunderous “WHO DEY!” chant, sending a jolt of energy through Who Dey Nation and signaling that football is officially underway in Cincinnati.

As the game reaches its final stretch, Rock N Rule takes over. Heading into the fourth quarter or during the first defensive timeout, a live guitarist shreds an electrifying rendition of “Welcome to the Jungle.” The roar of the guitars mixes with the roar of the fans, rallying the crowd and fueling the Bengals defense for the closing push.

BENGALS CAPTAIN AND WHO BAE

Jess and Jeremy Conley are lifelong Bengals fans and 15-year STREAK Season Ticket Members who bonded over a “Who Dey” on their first date. They bought their first season tickets together and joined the Bengal Bomb Squad tailgate in Lot 1. In 2017, a Microsoft commercial featuring the tailgate inspired Jeremy to embrace his game day alter ego, Bengals Captain, complete with a Captain Obvious look. He later dubbed Jess “Who Bae” as a nod to their favorite chant.

The Conleys have supported Cincinnati causes since 2012, most recently backing Freestore Foodbank, Pelotonia. They also contribute to Bengals player charities like the Cincy Hat Project, which benefits adults with developmental disabilities.

Jess also created and hosts Tigress Talk, the first and only Bengals YouTube show entirely run by women. She uses the platform to support H.E.R. Cincinnati and Women Helping Women, organizations serving women and families across the city.

Each say they married their best friend and the biggest Bengals fan they know.

PAUL BROWN

INNOVATOR. COACH. FOUNDER.

Paul Brown is one of the most iconic figures in NFL history, renowned for his groundbreaking coaching methods and lasting influence on the game. Founder of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1967 and winner of a record seven championships, his strategic brilliance reshaped football and left an enduring mark on generations of players, coaches and fans.

Brown was a pioneer in every sense. He was the first coach to use classroom-style play study, relay plays from the sideline, station assistants in the press box, evaluate players through film, hire a full-time staff and require players to stay together in a hotel before games.

His innovations included the face mask, the passing pocket, the draw play, the taxi squad and the timed 40-yard dash, staples of the game to this day. Over his career, he won 213 games, broke the color barrier in pro football by signing Bill Willis and Marion Motley in 1946 and became the winningest head coach in Cleveland Browns history. In 1976, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

ANTHONY MUÑOZ

CLASS OF 1998

ABOUT

POSITION: Offensive Tackle

HEIGHT: 6-6 | WEIGHT: 278

NFL CAREER: 1980-1992, Cincinnati Bengals

SEASONS: 13 | GAMES: 185

COLLEGE: University of Southern California

DRAFTED: 1st Round (3rd Overall), 1980

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans ... It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever. He has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

- Bengals President Mike Brown

The Bengals' Anthony Munoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1998. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. There currently are 382 Hall of Famers, and Munoz is one of only 90 players selected in their first year of eligibility.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are other Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to enter the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, California.

- Bengals President Mike Brown

Legendary Bengals CB Ken Riley, affectionately known by nicknames such as "The Rattler," "Mr. Bengal" and "Mr. Consistency," was officially announced as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023 at the NFL Honors ceremony on Feb. 9, 2023.
